Industrials Recover At Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials led the stocks market to a narrow advance in moderate trading.

Recovering from a first hour 1½ point index loss, industrials were up nearly one-point at the close. Golds rallied in the last hour for a one-quarter gain. Western oils remained down for the sixth straight session, off 1¼ points. Base metals lost a few decimal points.

Final volume was 3,601,000 shares, down slightly from Thursday's 3,666,000. Only one speculative mine, Min-Ore, traded 100,000 shares. It was up 3½ cents at 24½ cents on a turnover of 214,524 shares.

Most industrial changes were less than one-point. Gaining between one and two points, however, were Atlas Steel, International Paper and Howard Smith. Ford A added 1¾ at 116¾ to give the index a boost. Imperial Oil was down ½.

Pacific Pete was the lone senior to gain in western oils. It was up ⅛ at 16⅛. Hudson's Bay had the big loss, off ⅝ at 19¼. Triad lost 30 cents at $5.40 and Home Oil B dipped ¼ at 17½.

Papers Advance

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges were mixed. Massey common closed at 14⅝, off ¼.

Steels and banks were firm, while constructions slipped back from early gains.

Utilities were narrowly higher. Off ¼ were Bell at 43⅜ and BC Phone at 38⅝. Shawinigan was up ⅞ at 33⅝.

Papers advanced, while textiles, refining oils and pipelines were lower. Beverages were mixed.

Short Covering Helps

NEW YORK (UPI) — February closed on the stock market on an irregular note with specialties soaring and the main list holding in a narrow range.

Industrial shares ruled firm, aided by strength in American Telephone which at its best was up more than a point at a new high. Steels ruled firm, motors and oils mixed and rails easier.

Lukens Steel moved through a wide arc with the price easier at closing. Coca Cola ran up 5. Du Pont fell 3. Stauffer rose 12. Polaroid lost 4. So it went through a long list of issues. But gains outnumbered losses and with few exceptions there was no real selling pressure noted.

New strength came into some of the electronics issues, building equipment shares, electrical equipments, and communications.

London Stock Prices

LONDON (CP)—Sentiment was generally unsettled on the London stock market.

Gilt-edged securities encountered a certain amount of selling pressure and despite a recovery presented a depressed appearance.

Industrials were uncertain.

Gold shares suffered a further widespread setback.

CHICAGO (AP)—Unexpectedly large amounts of soybeans and grains held in the government price-support loan but short interests on the defensive in the grain futures market and they bid all prices substantially higher.

A report by the agriculture department showed all impoundings in the loan on Feb. 15 at record highs, some of them above the most liberal trade estimates.
